

10/14/04

By airing the anti-John Kerry documentary, Stolen Honor: Wounds that Never heal just two weeks before the election, and forcing its stations to carry the film, violates FCC requirements that broadcasts provide equal time for electoral candidates.

The broadcaster is trying to alter the perceptions of the audience about a presidential candidate by showing biases content that isn't even news.

If Sinclair goes ahead and does what it is planning, I believe their license should be revoked.

Sincerely,

Barbara Tuckerman Ali